“Glamp Fever” at the 2018 Boston RV & Camping Expo

Boston, MA (August 22, 2017) – Be a trendsetter and “glamp it up” at the 2018 Boston RV & Camping Expo running from Friday, January 12 through Monday, January 15 at the Boston Convention & Exhibition Center in the Seaport District.

Each season, glamping – a fusion of “glamorous camping” – continues to be redefined by outdoor enthusiasts who seek new ways to incorporate comfort and luxury into their camping experience.

Every January, the Boston RV & Camping Expo – New England’s largest indoor RV showroom and campsite – serves as an “Aide de Glamp” providing outdoor enthusiasts with access and solutions for a more lavish camping experience. Expo attendees can spend hours comparing dozens of floor plans and amenities in search for the best equipped units for their glamping lifestyle.

For those seeking to relax in High Glamp, the region’s premier campgrounds and travel information centers will be exhibiting to answer questions and offer getaway suggestions.

One such exhibitor is Sandy Pines Campground in Kennebunkport, Maine, who partnered with innovative interior designers to create a dozen distinctive “glamp tents,” where guests sleep on king-size beds beneath chandeliers and surround themselves with modern conveniences while still amongst nature.

“The tents are arranged around a central campfire and garden, fostering a community feeling, and we just added a communal grilling and picnic area,” said Deb Lennon, co-founder of Sandy Pines Campground.

Two hallmarks of the Boston RV & Camping Expo are its vast selection and low once-a-year pricing.

The Expo showcases the latest models in recreational vehicles, fifth wheels, travel trailers and pop-up campers, offering Expo-Only deals along with camping accessory vendors.

See why so many New England families come to the annual Boston RV & Camping Expo and leave as “Happy Glampers”!
